

CODE OF PRACTICE

PROJECT „BINDING EUROPE THROUGH CINEMA AND DANCE”

European Foundation for Urban Culture, with the headquarters in Cluj-Napoca, 29 Dimitrie Bolintineanu Street, fiscal code RO 19148831, acting as promoter of the project “Binding Europe through Cinema and Dance”, wants to promote and assure during the entire implementation the compliance of the good governance principles, sustainable development and equal opportunities. Therefore all participants in the project, no matter the role, level of involvement, social status or ethnicity will adopt and sign for acknowledgment the following:

1. Any decision that affects activities in the project will be transparent and assumed by all members and will not create any prejudices to any person, group or organization.
2. Access to information about the project will not be limited in any way and will be available to any juridical entity or person interested, with an official request to the project managers.
3. The sustainable development will be respected reassuring the economic, social and ecological resources in a sustainable way without putting in danger the possibilities for next generations to develop similar projects.
4. The human and material resources will be utilized in the project with efficiency. A prudent use of resources will be reassured all through the project and any residual materials will be reused, recycled, treated or stored in an ecological way.
5. Equality among all participants in the project will be respected no matter the ethnicity, gender or social status and all the participants will respect the law regarding the working process.
6. Tolerance and social inclusion will be promoted. Hate speech, discrimination, extremism, racism, homophobia, anti-Semitism and violence will be sanctioned.